Lane Motor Museum Offers Free Admission to Veterans & Active Military
Veterans Day, Saturday, November 11, 2006
Regular hours: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., October 24, 2006 --- Lane Motor Museum will offer free admission to veterans and active military from all branches of service in honor of Veterans Day on Saturday, November 11, 2006. Regular admission rates apply for all other guests. A dozen unique military vehicles are currently on display including a 1959 LARC-LX, a large amphibious vehicle used during the Vietnam War.

The LARC-LX is the size of three semi-trucks with trailers parked side by side, and is believed to be the largest vehicle ever driven on the streets of Nashville.

"We think it is important to honor those who served or are serving in the military," said Susan Lane, Museum curator and U.S. Army veteran. "It is our small way to say thank you."

Other unique military vehicles include a 1962 Mercedes-Benz Unimog, a 1962 Alvis Stalwart (also amphibious), a 1974 Faun Kraka (which folds in half), a 1983 Croco, and a 1937 Tempo G-1200 (twin engine).

About Lane Motor Museum

Lane Motor Museum showcases approximately 150 unique cars and motorcycles from around the world. Cars on display represent countries from Asia, Europe, and North and South America, and date from 1922 to 2003. Highlights of the Museum include the largest Czechoslovakian vehicle collection outside Europe, microcars, amphibious vehicles, alternative fuel vehicles, competition cars, motorcycles, military vehicles, and prototypes. The Museum also offers a display of automotive art, a play area for children, and a gift shop.

Lane Motor Museum welcomes guests Thursday through Monday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Closed: Tuesday & Wednesday; Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day & New Year's Day. Regular admission is $5 for adults, $3 for seniors (55+), and free for children 17 and under. Group rates are available.
