Historic Nissan Heritage Cars Exhibit to open at Lane Motor Museum January 4, 2007 through June 25, 2007

Nashville TN, December 22, 2006--- Lane Motor Museum is proud to exhibit a collection of cars on loan from Nissan North America Heritage Collection and a special grouping of Historic Nissan Heritage Cars will be on display from January 4, 2007 through June 25, 2007. The cars will document Nissan's rebirth after World War II and the company's entry into the American market. Featured will be rare examples of a: 1937 Konut roadster, 1958 1000 sedan, 1960 1200 sedan, 1961 Fairlady, 1967 Patrol, 1960 1200 pickup, 1970 1600 roadster, and 1971 1200 coupe. Regular admission rates apply to see these vehicles.

The 1967 Patrol is Nissan's first utility vehicle and is the predecessor of a long line of Nissan Sports Utility vehicles that followed. The 1961 Fairlady could be considered the beginning of Nissan's sports car legacy.

About Nissan North America, Inc.

Nissan first came to the United States to sell vehicles in 1958 and began importing and making Datsun vehicles in the United States under the Nissan Motor Corporation, U.S.A. (NMC) name in 1960. In 1990, Nissan North America Inc. (NNA) was created to coordinate all of Nissan's various activities in North America to enhance the design, development, manufacturing and marketing of Nissan vehicles. In 1998, the two organizations merged operations under the Nissan North America, Inc. name. NNA's mission is to provide all Nissan and Infiniti employees and dealers with the tools they need for constant improvement and consumer satisfaction. Headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee, NNA coordinates all operations in the United States, Canada, and Mexico including automotive styling, consumer, and corporate financing and engineering.

Nissan North America, Inc. markets eleven vehicle lines through 1,100 dealers in the continental United States through its Fleet Sales operation. In addition to the 350Z, the vehicle lineup includes the Sentra, Altima, Maxima, Xterra, Pathfinder, Frontier, Titan, Murano, Armada and Quest. Additional Nissan information may be found at www.NissanUSA.com or www.Infiniti.com.
